TRIBUNAL CIRCULAR

The Tribunal has issued new Practice Directions, which are located on the Tribunal's website www.rmpat.tas.gov.au/tribunalprocedures. The Practice Directions became effective on 8 August 2011. It is important that you familiarise yourself with their requirements and ensure that in any proceedings with the Tribunal you comply with the new directions.

Please note that considerable changes have been made in relation to the requirements for information which is submitted to the Tribunal (see Practice Direction 9). In addition, Practice Direction 8 makes important changes in relation to the formatting of evidence for Tribunal hearings and Practice Direction 12 contains considerable elaboration on the role of expert witnesses.

I thank you in anticipation of your co-operation.

Yours faithfully
