

26 October 2020

TRIBUNAL CIRCULAR

Hearing Room Amplification System

The amplification system in the Tribunal's new hearing rooms at Barrack Street is extremely sensitive. When the Tribunal is not recording proceedings, the microphones still continue to operate and will send audio through the hearing loop systems to any hearing aid device being used in the room.

As such, parties are encouraged to use meeting rooms or other areas outside the hearing rooms, if they wish to have private conversations.

J Bryan
Registrar
Resource Management & Planning Appeal Tribunal