PERSONAL INFORMATION PROTECTION STATEMENT

Personal information will be collected from you for the purpose of performing the Tribunal's statutory functions in conducting appeals and applications. This information will be primarily used by the Tribunal for contacting you in order to advise you of procedures, appointments and providing such other information as necessary. You are required to provide this information by the Resource Management and Planning Appeal Tribunal Act 1993, and such other legislation where application may be made to the Tribunal. Failure to provide this information may result in the Tribunal being unable to process your appeal/application and consequential orders made that any such appeal or application be dismissed. Your personal information will be used for the primary purpose for which it is collected, and it will be disclosed to other parties to the proceedings. You should note that Notices of Appeal are public documents, which are available to members of the public on request to the Tribunal. You should also note that any information disclosed in a public hearing as part of evidence, also constitutes public information. Your basic personal information may be disclosed to other public sector bodies where necessary for the efficient storage and use of the information. Personal information will be managed in accordance with the Personal Information Protection Act 2004 and may be accessed by the individual to whom it relates on request to the Registry of the Resource Management and Planning Appeal Tribunal.
